Destination Description

Havana City, Cuba is world famous for some of the most vibrant and unique neighborhoods and communities in the world. A cultural mecca, Havana's landscape is as richly diverse as the people who inhabit the area. One of the most famous areas of downtown Havana is the city's Vedado neighborhood.

If you really want to get to know Cuban culture, without leaving Havana, your best bet is to experience Vedado. It's a more modern and affluent neighborhood, but still packed with bars, restaurants, music venues and, best of all, regular Cubans.
